Is THE HUNTER above a "TRAINED PERSON"? (tick appropriate answer)

Yes, Trained Person Certificate Number: _____

No, but a trained person was present and can sign the declaration<sup>2</sup>, complete the details below:

Name of Trained Person: _____ Contact Phone No: _____
 Trained Person Certificate Number: _____ Trained Person Licence Number: _____

No, and a trained person isn't in a position to sign the declaration<sup>3</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> The intake document can be used for a number of deer, but only when they were shot in the same locality within a reasonable timeframe. Where there is insufficient room on this document, a list of carcase identification numbers must be attached.

<sup>2</sup> In this instance, the Trained Person must be part of the hunting team or located in the immediate vicinity of where hunting is taking place.

<sup>3</sup> Where a Trained Person is unable to sign this Declaration, the head and all the viscera except for the stomach and the intestines must accompany the carcase(s) to the game handling establishment.

ONLY to be completed by a TRAINED PERSON

TRAINED PERSON DECLARATION

I have carried out an examination of the body, and of the viscera removed, to identify any characteristics that may indicate that the meat presents a health risk. I confirm that:

- No abnormal behaviour was observed before killing
- No abnormal characteristics during examination of the body and of any viscera removed, and
- No suspicion of environmental contamination.

Signature of Trained Person: _____ Date: ____/____/____
